

SUMMER READING CHALLENGE III CHOICE BOARD

Directions: Read at least three books of your choice and compete at least one activity for each book from this choice board.

Choose an important event from the book. Write a poem, song, or rap lyric about that event.	Pretend you are a TV interviewer. Write an interview with a character from the book.	Design a new cover for the book. Explain why you think your design is a good one for that book.	Choose an important event from the book. Make a diorama or scene. Write a paragraph to accompany the diorama.
Pretend you are a TV interviewer. Write an interview with the author of the book.	Choose a character from the book. Collect/draw 5 items that relate to that character in an important way. Explain why you chose each item.	Choose an event in the book. Write an article for the newspaper about it. Include who, what, where, when, and why.	Choose a part of the book that you think would make a good play. Rewrite that part of the book in script format.
Choose an important event in the book. Rewrite the event from another character's perspective.	Make a timeline to show the sequence of at least ten events in the book.	Choose ten words or names that are important to the story. Make a word search or crossword puzzle with the words.	Write a letter to introduce yourself to a character in the book. Tell the character why you want to get to know him/her.
Rewrite the ending of the book to how you would have wanted it to end.	Choose a scene from the book. Describe what you see, hear, smell, touch, and taste.	Choose a paragraph from the book that you think is significant. Write that paragraph. Tell why it is important.	Write a TV commercial or record a review that will sell millions of copies of the book.
Write a letter to the author. Tell why you liked the book. Ask two questions to help you better understand the book.	Choose three events in the story. Tell about the events by writing diary entries from one character's perspective.	Write a paragraph that begins this way: "This book made me think seriously about..."	Choose an important event in the book. Create a comic strip that conveys what happened.